

SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

1. Scope

This policy sets out the obligations of our People in relation to dealing in:

- Funtastic Limited (Funtastic Securities); and
- Securities of other entities (for example, a company with which the Funtastic Group is considering a transaction).

Our People includes all Directors, employees and contractors of Funtastic Limited (Funtastic) and its related bodies corporate (Funtastic Group).

As an administrator of financial ownership data, from time to time, Funtastic Group has access to confidential and market sensitive information of our clients. Accordingly, it is critical that our People do not deal in financial products unlawfully or to the detriment of Funtastic Group clients or Funtastic Group. A separate Client Securities Trading & Investment Choice Policy has established principles and procedures for how our People are permitted to deal in Securities of Funtastic Group clients (see section 8).

2. Purpose

Under Australian legislation, the insider trading laws operate to prohibit people in possession of non- public price sensitive information from dealing in Securities or passing on the information to other people who may deal in Securities.

This policy also imposes additional restrictions (described in section 6) on:

- all Funtastic Directors;
- all executive direct reports to the Managing Director (Senior Executives);
- other employees and contractors of Funtastic Group that have been nominated due to the nature of their position, including Senior Leaders;
- associates of our People (as defined in the Australian Corporations Act (2001 (Cth)), including close family members and trusts and entities controlled by them; and
- other persons identified by Funtastic Group from time to time;

(Restricted Persons).

3. Meaning of Securities

For the purposes of this policy Securities means shares, debentures, options to subscribe for new shares and options over existing shares, interests in managed investment schemes, warrant contracts, derivatives and any other financial products that can be traded on a financial market.

4. Insider trading and general obligations

4.1 Prohibition

If a person has any inside information (as defined below in section 4.3) about the Funtastic Group (or another relevant entity) which is not publicly known, it is a criminal offence to:

- trade in Funtastic Securities (or Securities of the other relevant entity);
- advise or procure another person to trade in Funtastic Group Securities (or Securities of the other relevant entity); or
- pass on (directly or indirectly) inside information to someone else (including colleagues, family or friends) knowing (or where you should have reasonably known) that the other person will, or is likely to, use that information to trade in, or procure someone else to trade in, Funtastic Group Securities (or Securities of the other relevant entity).

4.2 Consequences of insider trading

This offence, called insider trading, can subject you to:

- criminal liability including large fines and/or imprisonment;
- a civil penalty; and
- civil liability, which may include being sued for any loss suffered as a result of illegal trading.

4.3 Inside information

Inside information is information that:

- is not generally available; and
- if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Securities or on a decision to buy or sell Securities.

Inside information may relate to Funtastic Group, a corporate client or any other listed company. With respect to Funtastic Group, examples could include information relating to:

- financial performance, financial forecasts or expectations of Funtastic Group;
- mergers, demergers, acquisitions and divestments of Funtastic Group;
- significant new contracts or clients of Funtastic Group;

- industry issues that may have a material impact on Funtastic Group;
- changes to the Funtastic Board;
- a material change in law or Government policy that may have a material impact on Funtastic Group; and/or
- Funtastic Group becoming a plaintiff or defendant in a material law suite (Note that this is not an exhaustive list).

Importantly, you do not need to be an insider to come across inside information. That is, it does not matter how you come to know the inside information (for example, you could learn it in the course of carrying out your responsibilities, in passing in the corridor, in a lift or at a dinner party).

4.4 Insider trading is prohibited at all times

If you possess inside information, you must not buy or sell Funtastic Group Securities, advise or procure others to do so, or pass on the inside information to others. This prohibition applies regardless of how you learn the information.

The prohibition on insider trading applies not only to information concerning Funtastic Group Securities. If a person has inside information in relation to Securities of another company, that person must not deal in those Securities.

The insider trading prohibitions apply even when a trade falls within an exclusion to the restrictions on trading set out in this policy as listed in section 6.9 if it is undertaken by, or procured by, someone in possession of inside information at the time of the trade.

5. Confidential information

Our People also have a duty of confidentiality to Funtastic Group. You must not reveal any confidential information concerning Funtastic Group, use that information in any way which may cause damage or loss to Funtastic Group, or use that confidential information to gain an advantage for yourself.

6. Restrictions on trading

6.1 Restricted Persons

Additional restrictions (described below in sections 6.4 and 6.5) on trading Funtastic Group Securities apply to Restricted Persons. The additional restrictions in this policy do not prohibit Restricted Persons from acquiring Securities as a result of the events listed under section 6.9, provided they are not in possession of inside information at the time of the trade.

For example, although the additional restrictions do not apply to a Restricted Person's participation in a dividend reinvestment plan or an employee equity plan, a Restricted Person must not make an election to participate or cease participation in a dividend reinvestment plan or employee share plan if they are in possession of inside information (see section 4.4).

6.2 Reasons for additional restrictions on Restricted Persons

Restricted Persons are in positions where they may come into possession of inside information and, as a result, any trading by Restricted Persons might reflect adversely on them or on Funtastic Group (even if a Restricted Person has no actual inside information at the time). This policy is designed to avoid the possibility that misconceptions, misunderstandings or suspicions might arise due to trading in Securities by Restricted Persons.

6.3 Trading windows

Restricted Persons may, subject to the prior clearance and notification requirements in section 6.4, deal in Funtastic Group Securities as a matter of course (unless there is in existence price sensitive information that has not been disclosed as a result of Funtastic Group's reliance on an exception under the Listing Rules of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX)) in the following Trading Windows:

- (i) 20 business days beginning on the first trading day after Funtastic Group's annual results are released to ASX;
- (ii) 20 business days beginning on the first trading day after Funtastic Group's half year results are released to ASX;
- (iii) 20 business days beginning on the first trading day after Funtastic Group's Annual General Meeting; and
- (iv) any other period as the Funtastic Board may decide.

In all other periods outside a Trading Window, you are prohibited in dealing in Funtastic Group Securities unless otherwise permitted by this policy.

The Funtastic Board may also impose an ad hoc prohibited period during a Trading Window.

6.4 Clearance procedures

If a Restricted Person proposes to deal in Funtastic Group Securities at any time, they must:

- (i) if applicable, obtain prior written clearance to deal in Funtastic Group Securities from the relevant authorising officer noted in the table below (Authorising Officer). (Note: Employees (other than Senior Executives and Senior Leaders) are required to provide prior notification to deal in Funtastic Group Securities but are not required to seek authorisation); and / or
- (ii) provide prior written notice of their intention to deal in Funtastic Group Securities to the Company Secretary; and

- (iii) provide confirmation to the relevant person(s) noted in the table below that they are not in possession of inside information, at least two trading days before the proposed dealing (or another period approved by the Funtastic Board) in the way communicated at the time the Trading Window opens.

Restricted Person	Authorising Officer	Prior notification to the Company Secretary
Chair of the Funtastic Board	Chair of the Risk, Audit & Compliance Committee	Yes
Other Funtastic Directors (including Managing Director)	Chair of the Funtastic Board	Yes
Senior Executives, Senior Leaders and other persons identified by Funtastic Group from time to time	Managing Director	Yes
Employees	Not applicable – authorisation not required (notification only)	Yes

If granted to a Director, Senior Executive or Senior Leader, consent to trade is only valid for a period of five trading days after notification of approval, unless otherwise notified by the Authorising Officer to the Restricted Person. Trading consent is automatically deemed to be withdrawn if the person becomes aware of inside information prior to trading.

Any approval to trade can be given, withdrawn or refused by Funtastic Group in its discretion without giving any reasons. A decision to refuse approval is final and binding on the person seeking the approval. If approval to trade Funtastic Group Securities is refused, the person seeking the approval must keep that information confidential and not disclose it to anyone. Any approval to trade under this policy is not an endorsement from Funtastic Group and the person undertaking the trade is individually responsible for their investment decisions and their compliance with insider trading laws.

The insider trading prohibitions apply even when a trade is permitted under this section if it is undertaken by, or procured by, someone in possession of inside information at the time of the trade (see section 4.4).

6.5 Requirements after trading

Once a Restricted Person has completed a trade in Funtastic Group Securities, the Authorising Officer (if applicable) described in section 6.4 and in all cases, the Company Secretary, must be:

- advised that the trade has been completed and attach the trade confirmation in the way communicated at the time the Trading Window opens; and
- in the case of Funtastic Directors, provided with sufficient information to enable Funtastic to comply with its ASX reporting obligations. This information must be provided to ASX as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event no later than five business days after the date of the change – accordingly, Funtastic Directors must provide the relevant information to the Company Secretary within three business days of the change.

6.6 No speculative short term trading

Restricted Persons should not trade in Funtastic Group Securities on a short term basis or for speculative trading gain.

6.7 No hedging

A Restricted Person must not engage in hedging arrangements, deal in derivatives or enter into other arrangements which vary economic risk related to Funtastic Group Securities including, for example, dealing in warrants, equity swaps, put and call options, contracts for difference and other contracts intended to secure a profit or avoid a loss based on fluctuations in the price of Funtastic Group Securities.

This prohibition includes engaging in hedging or other arrangements that would have the effect of limiting the economic risk in connection with Funtastic Group Securities including Securities which are unvested, subject to a holding lock or issued pursuant to a Funtastic Group equity based remuneration scheme.

6.8 Margin lending

Restricted Persons are permitted to take out margin loans over their holdings in Funtastic Group Securities provided they first comply with the applicable clearance and notification process as set out in section 6.4.

However, Restricted Persons must ensure they have sufficient available cash or collateral to meet margin calls, including in periods of volatility.

6.9 Permitted dealings

Certain types of dealing are excluded from the operation of this policy and may be undertaken at any time (subject to complying with the insider trading prohibitions outlined above in section 4.4), including the following (and any other permitted dealings as approved by the Funtastic Board from time to time and notified to Restricted Persons):

- employee incentive schemes – the additional restrictions in this policy do not prohibit Restricted Persons from acquiring Securities or exercising an option or right under a Funtastic Group employee incentive scheme subject to the terms of the relevant employee incentive scheme. However, the additional restrictions will apply to any subsequent trading of Funtastic Group Securities acquired under an employee incentive scheme and the Restricted Person must make an election to participate or cease participation in an employee incentive scheme when they are not in possession of inside information;
- dividend reinvestment plan – the additional restrictions in this policy do not prohibit Restricted Persons from acquiring Securities under the Funtastic Group dividend reinvestment plan. However, the additional restrictions will apply to any subsequent trading of Funtastic Group Securities acquired under a dividend reinvestment plan and the Restricted Person must make an election to participate or cease participation in a dividend reinvestment plan when they are not in possession of inside information;
- rights offers, share purchase plans and buy-backs (or other pro-rata/generalised offers)
– trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as a rights issue, a security plan purchase and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Funtastic Board. This includes decisions relating to whether to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;
- third party discretion – an investment in, or trading in units of, a linked or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in Funtastic Group Securities) where the assets of the linked or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party; and
- disposal under margin lending arrangement – an involuntary disposal of securities that results from a margin lender or financier exercising its rights under a margin lending or other secured financing arrangement that has previously been approved in accordance with this policy.

6.10 Exceptional circumstances

If a Restricted Person needs to deal in Funtastic Group Securities due to exceptional circumstances but such dealing would breach this policy, the Restricted Person must apply to the Authorising Officer described in section 6.4 for a waiver from compliance with the provisions in sections 6.4 or 6.5.

If no Authorising Officer is described in section 6.4, the Restricted Person must apply to the Company Secretary.

Exceptional circumstances include severe financial hardship, compulsion by a court order or any other circumstances that are deemed exceptional by the person described in section 6.4.

The Restricted Person seeking a waiver under this section must apply in writing (for example, via email) to the person described in section 6.4 (or the Company Secretary if no person is described in section 6.4):

- (a) setting out the circumstances of the proposed dealing (including an explanation as to the severe financial hardship or circumstances that are otherwise exceptional) and the reason the waiver is requested; and
- (b) provide confirmation to the relevant person(s) that they are not in possession of inside information.

A waiver will only be granted if the Restricted Person's application is accompanied by sufficient evidence (in the opinion of the relevant person described in section 6.4 or the Company Secretary, as applicable) that the dealing of the relevant Securities is the most reasonable course of action available in the circumstances.

If a waiver is granted, the Restricted Person will be notified in writing. The duration of the waiver to deal in Securities will be five trading days, unless otherwise notified by the Authorising Officer to the Restricted Person.

Unless otherwise specified in the notice, any dealing permitted under this section must comply with the other sections of this policy (to the extent applicable). The insider trading prohibitions apply even when a trade falls within this section if it is undertaken by, or procured by, someone in possession of inside information at the time of the trade.

7. Breaches of this policy

Strict compliance with this policy is a condition of employment or engagement by Funtastic Group. Breaches of this policy will be regarded as serious misconduct and may lead to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment or engagement by Funtastic Group.

8. Other related policies

Our People may also be subject to related Funtastic Group or Divisional policies that cover dealing in Securities, communicating information or conflicts of interest, for example the Client Securities Trading & Investment Choice Policy.

You must also comply with the requirements of those policies, in addition to the requirements set out in this policy. Please contact Risk and Compliance for further information.

9. Additional information

If you have any questions about this policy, the summary of the law, or how it applies to you, you should contact the Company Secretary before dealing with any Securities covered by this policy.

10. Review

This policy will be reviewed at least every two years and updated as required.

Authorised by the Board

19 December 2018